2-9-3:	Purpose and Duties
2-9-4:	Membership
2-9-5:	Facilitation/Liaison
2-9-6:	Subcommittees
2-9-7:	Meetings

2-9-1: NAME AND REFERENCES

The name of the Committee will be "CASSIA COUNTY 9-1-1 ADVISORY COMMITTEE," hereinafter referred to as the "9-1-1 Committee" or "Committee". References herein to "Board" will mean the Board of Commissioners for Cassia County.

2-9-2: AUTHORIZATION

The 9-1-1 Committee has been approved, sanctioned and authorized by the Cassia County Board of Commissioners (hereinafter "Board") to maintain and govern the operation, maintenance and establishment of a consolidated emergency communications system as established in Cassia County, Idaho [see Title 5, Chapter 2, Cassia County Code].

Members of this committee will hold office at the pleasure of the Board.

2-9-3: PURPOSE AND DUTIES

- A. Purpose: The purpose of this 9-1-1 Committee is to provide input and recommendations to the Board regarding the 9-1-1 operations and related functions that affects Cassia County, Idaho.

2-9-4

- B. Duties: The 9-1-1 Committee performs the following duties:
- a. Review rural addressing issues and 911 mapping issues, as requested by Mapper and provide recommendations;
  - b. Recommend to the Board regarding major purchases of 9-1-1 equipment, that being any expenditure exceeding Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00); (amended, Resolution Number 2014-010, June 23, 2014);
  - c. Advise the Board in planning for, upgrading, and updating county-wide communication system;
  - d. Expenses for new equipment or for maintenance and service of existing equipment and infrastructure that do not exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), if requested and recommended by the 9-1-1 Coordinator or Assistant Coordinator in writing, may be approved by facilitator as designated herein, or may be approved by the County Commissioner overseeing this Committee, without action of the 9-1-1 Committee or the Board. If the facilitator or Commissioner determines that the 9-1-1 Committee should first review the proposed expenditure, that matter will be scheduled to be brought before the 9-1-1 Committee in a properly noticed meeting for review and action.

MEMBERSHIP

- A. Members of the 911 Committee will be selected, and approved, by the Board. Members must be currently affiliated with the body that they represent on this Committee. If a member of the Board represents a Cassia County department or office, the member must be a full-time employee of Cassia County that is deemed by the Board to be in good standing. "Good standing" shall be determined by regular attendance at meetings, participation in good faith on the 9-1-1 Committee, and by the member's conducting themselves in accordance with Cassia County's Personnel Policy. Members determined by the Board to not be in good standing will be removed from the 9-1-1 Committee. Further the Board may remove any member of the committee without cause, and at any time.
- B. The 9-1-1 Committee will consist of membership from the following areas: an emergency medical services unit representative, a fire district representative, the County GIS mapper, Cassia County Sheriff or designee; and the 9-1-1 Coordinator. If the 9-1-1 Coordinator is unable to attend, the Assistant Coordinator will fill that position as a voting member of the Committee.

The County Commissioner with oversight of 9-1-1 matters will be an ex-officio and non-voting member to the 9-1-1 Committee. The Commissioner may attend committee meetings and participate in discussions, offering input and advice as requested by voting board members, but shall not make or second motions nor have a vote on any proposed actions. Further, the Commissioner will serve as the liaison between the Committee and the Board.

- C. Members of this committee will hold office at the pleasure of the Board and will serve without salary or wage. If an appointed member of the Committee is a Cassia County employee, the member will serve with no additional wage as a county employee in an advisory capacity to the Committee. If the Committee member is not a Cassia County employee, then they must be a resident of Cassia County. In regard to service on this committee, members are not answerable to anyone other than the Board of Commissioners.
- D. Members of the 9-1-1 Committee will be appointed to serve for a term of four (4) years. In order to provide for continuity, the term expiration dates of 50% of the appointees will expire in two (2) years. As long as the appointee is qualified to serve, and is willing to serve, and at the discretion of the Board, a member may be reappointed to any number of successive four (4) year terms.
- E. A member of the 9-1-1 Committee may resign from service on the committee by submitting written resignation to the Board of County Commissioners, in care of the Cassia County Commissioners' Office.

2-9-5: FACILITATION/LIAISON

- A. The Assistant to the Board of County Commissioners will conduct and facilitate the meetings and perform such other duties as pertain to the function of facilitator.
- B. If the Assistant to the Board of County Commissioners cannot be present at the meeting of the 9-1-1 Committee, the Assistant to the Board of County Commissioners shall delegate conducting and facilitating functions for that meeting to another person.

2-9-6: SUBCOMMITTEES

Subcommittees may be established and appointed by the Board of County Commissioners to assist the 9-1-1 Committee in performance of its functions and assignments. Each subcommittee will consist of at least one (1) voting member of the 9-1-1 Committee. Citizens and public officials may be appointed to serve as non-voting members on the subcommittees by the Board of County Commissioners.

2-9-7: MEETINGS*A. Locations and Dates:

1. Meetings of the 9-1-1 Committee may be held at the County Commission Chambers or such other suitable place as may be determined and at a time determined by the Committee. The Committee will hold at least one (1) meeting during each fiscal year. Meetings will be held as needed and as required throughout the year to conduct the business and fulfill the duties of the Committee.
2. Meetings will be called by the Assistant to the Board of County Commissioners or the County Commissioner having oversight of the Committee. Notices of meetings and publication of agendas must comply with Idaho Code, Title 74, Chapter 2, the Idaho Open Meetings Law or any successor law.

B. Decisions and Quorums:

1. All actions, recommendations and decisions (other than those specified otherwise in the By-Laws) made by the 9-1-1 Committee must be made by simple majority vote of participating voting members taken when a quorum of the group is constituted in a lawful meeting.
2. A quorum shall consist of at least three (3) of the five (5) voting members being present at the meeting.
3. All voting members present at a lawfully called meeting will be counted to determine the existence of a quorum, even though some of those members may not be participating in the action.
4. Presence of a quorum member may be obtained remotely, if done in accordance with state law.
5. Once a quorum is determined to exist, it will remain so, until the number of voting members present at the meeting shall fall below three (3). When a quorum ceases to be present at the meeting, then the Facilitator shall close the meeting, and no further action will be taken until a quorum is re-constituted.

C. Procedures:

1. Meetings will be conducted by the Facilitator or Facilitator's designee. Specifically, the Facilitator is responsible for ensuring: the recording and distribution of meeting notes; that meetings are conducted and facilitated effectively; that meetings are productive and within the scope of the mission and goals of the 9-1-1 Committee.

2. Consideration may be given to the use of a professional facilitator not directly affiliated with the membership, for agendas that may be especially controversial.
3. Each regularly appointed voting member will be entitled to one (1) vote on any matter that may come before the 9-1-1 Committee. The vote of the majority of the voting members present at any meeting attended by a quorum of its members will be necessary to decide any action items. Any member participating in deliberations will disclose conflicts of interest on matters before the Committee before deliberations begin.
4. Rules of conduct will be strictly adhered to through meeting facilitation; members should listen actively; members will be entitled to speak and be heard; problems and issues will be attacked – not people. Matters coming before the 9-1-1 Committee will be heard in accordance with the provisions of Cassia County Resolution No. 2002-12-02, or its successor. If the matter is not covered by the provisions of that resolution, then specific rules of conduct or working guidelines may be formally recommended by the Committee to the County Commissioners for adoption by the Commissioners.
5. It shall be the purpose of the 9-1-1 Committee to allow opportunity for all reasonable viewpoints that are relevant to the business of the committee to be expressed in the meetings of the 9-1-1 Committee.
6. Members will be respectful to one another and to guests invited to appear before the committee.
7. Members will contact the County Commissioners' Office in advance of a called or scheduled meeting to notify if they will be absent.

2-9-8: 9-1-1 COORDINATOR AND ASSISTANT COORDINATOR

- A. The Committee may recommend qualifications for the Board to consider in selecting a 9-1-1 Coordinator or Assistant Coordinator; and Committee may also recommend persons to be considered for appointment as 9-1-1 Coordinator or Assistant Coordinator.
- B. The Board of County Commissioners will appoint the 9-1-1 Coordinator. If deemed to be needed, the Board may appoint an Assistant 9-1-1 Coordinator.

2-9-8

- C. The appointed Coordinator and/or Assistant Coordinator will serve at the pleasure of the Board and can be removed at any time, with or without cause.
- D. The appointed Coordinator and/or Assistant Coordinator will serve without pay. These are volunteer positions. Necessary mileage may be reimbursed.
- E. The Committee shall determine a job description for the 9-1-1 Coordinator and Assistant Coordinator positions, which job descriptions shall be approved by the Board of County Commissioners before becoming effective.
- F. The 9-1-1 Coordinator and Assistant must be Cassia County residents at the time of appointment. They must remain Cassia County residents to remain qualified to hold the position.
