Dear Candidate:

As the primaries and general election both approach, campaign signs will appear around the state. The Idaho Transportation Department (ITD) would like to remind you of the law governing election signs in public rights-of-way and to inform you of ITD policy.

Enclosed are copies of §18-7029 and §40-1910, Idaho Code, which address the requirements and some limitations for placing posters or promotional material on public or private property.

Candidates have the right to request permission to place election signs or posters at appropriate locations. However, ITD is unable to grant permission to post election signs or posters on any roadway under its jurisdiction due to federal restrictions, Idaho Code, safety concerns and maintenance requirements. This includes fences along all interstate corridors and all rights-of-way on the state highway system. ITD respectfully asks you to avoid placing signs in these areas.

ITD's maintenance crews have limited resources to address illegally placed signs or posters. However, when ITD maintenance crews are working in the general area, they will remove signs that pose a visual obstruction or safety hazard or if the signs generate complaints.

The Department holds removed election signs or posters at the nearest ITD maintenance yard where they can be retrieved up to 10-days after the election. After this time, they will be disposed of.

ITD appreciates your consideration. If you have questions, please contact your nearest district office from the enclosed list.

Sincerely,

Blake Rindlisbacher, P.E.
Chief Engineer
Idaho Transportation Department
